Art Work is a ongoing series that hosts innovative artists who speak about the artistic process on special evenings at Lang. Students gain access to the intimate workings of some of the most influential artists practicing in the city today. In an intimate setting, the artists detail their creative process, speak about new productions, and examine their most famous works. The series is curated by Bonnie Marranca, professor of Theatre at Eugene Lang College.

Free; no tickets or reservations required; seating is first-come first-served
